Client Spotlight: Bruce Williams, Abbott Nutrition

Bruce Williams got his start with Abbott Nutrition 28 years ago. Born in California and raised in Salt Lake City, Bruce eventually tired of the snow and decided to move to Arizona where he later got his start with Abbott. Several years later he relocated with Abbott to Washington DC where he spent 20 year until 3 years ago when it was on to Cincinnati to manage Abbott's business with Kroger.

Now, as a Senior Team Leader for Abbott Nutrition, a Division of Abbott Laboratories, Bruce manages sales for all major food customers in the Southeastern US.

Abbott Nutrition's line of products includes familiar brands such as Similac baby formula, Ensure, Glucerna, Zone Perfect Nutrition Bars and EAS Sports Nutrition. Bruce noted that the company is an innovator in all of its product lines.

Last year when the newly renovated local office became overcrowded Bruce came across Blue Ash Office Suites reviewing local providers. "I did my homework and visited all the offices in the area and I liked this office. This is where I wanted to be." says Bruce of his search for a new office.

When Bruce isn't traveling to meet with his teams in the southeast or in his office he is an avid golfer and spends a good amount of time at the gym. A self-proclaimed "Buckeye through marriage," Bruce also enjoys spending weekends with his wife searching out fine dining options. He has two sons and a 9 month old granddaughter. It is easy to see by visiting Bruce's office that he is very proud of his family as he is surrounded by photos at work each day.
